

DO STUDENTS FOLLOW INSTRUCTIONS AND RULES?

METHODS

-Questionnaire

-LESSON OBSERVATIONS

-INTERVIEWS (2)

1. My colleagues use different strategies (Ex → silent sign)

2. Most students follow instructions and rules, only 30% of the students don't follow them.

3. Being able to work, respect others and the teacher, understand the content and have a comfortable class environment.

CONCLUSION

CONTEXT

- Santiago College
- Private school
- Group Age → 9-10 years old

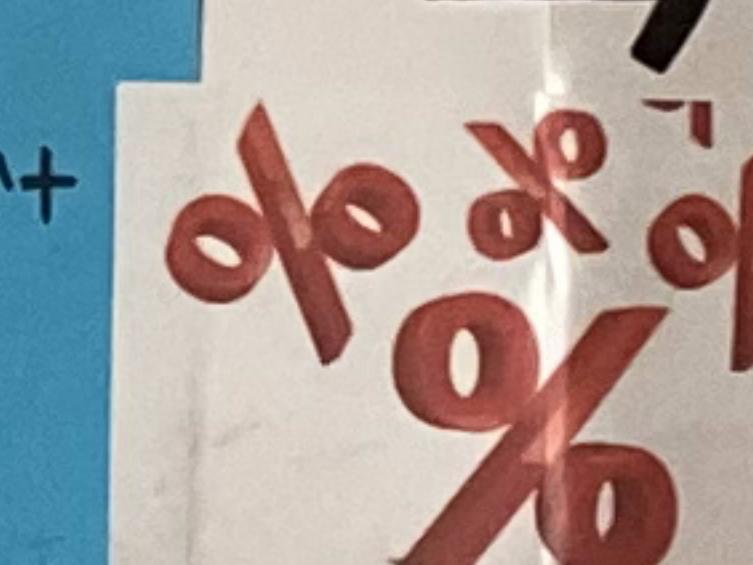

Fourth Grade

1. What do my colleagues do to ensure instructions and rules are followed up?
2. How do students react to instructions and rules?
3. What do students think is expected of them regarding instructions and rules?

QUESTIONS ANSWERS

1. Different strategies applied to ensure students follow instructions and rules.
2. 70% of the students follow and pays attention.
30% don't follow and don't pay attention.
More than 50% of the students get distracted.
More than 50% of the students ask the teacher when they don't understand.
37% of the students never get mad when they don't understand.
3. - Giving my best
- Always follow instructions and rules
- work correctly
- Do the work
- pay attention
- Show the rest of the class how to follow instructions and rules

1. Silence sign, show with your body that you are listening, positive framing, if you listen clap 3 times.
2. Most of students follow instructions and rules, 30% not, they get distracted sometimes, they ask when they don't understand, they don't get mad when they don't understand.
3. Always follow instructions and rules, do my best, being able to do the work, create a comfortable class environment, understand the content, we must follow them if not the teacher will not be able to teach us.

DATA OBTAINED SUGGESTED ACTION PLAN

- Different strategies
- Vary types of activities
- Essential agreement
- Action plan small group (P)

PICTURES